

Contracting Jobs at MDA

The Missile Defense Agency develops, tests, and fields an integrated, layered system to defend the United States, its deployed forces, allies, and friends against all ranges of enemy ballistic missiles.

Core Values

- Respect: Mutual for each other with dignity
- Teamwork: We accomplish more helping each other than as individuals
- Dedication: To our nation and our missile defense mission
- Integrity: In all things, all the time
- Professionalism: Strive for it in all you do

Why MDA?

- National Security – At MDA, you'll acquire capabilities used by Warfighters to keep our nation, deployed forces, and allies safe from missile attack.
- Up-Tempo – MDA's up-temp will ensure you never have a boring day.
- Budget – MDA's ~$10 billion annual budget will give you opportunities to buy major weapon systems, research & development efforts, services, and more.
- Diversity – Not only will you work alongside a diverse group of brilliant people, but the organization also offers diverse roles and rotational opportunities. Employees have the opportunity to rotate roles throughout the agency to better understand the functions of each department of the agency.

Locations

- Huntsville, AL – Seated in the beautiful Tennessee Valley, Huntsville offers malls, hundreds of restaurants, craft breweries, parks, and museums.
- Fort Greely, AK – Fort Greely is located just outside of the town of Delta Junction, and sits between three mountain ranges in the beautiful Tanana River Valley.
- Colorado Springs, CO – In addition to all of the comforts of other cities, Colorado Springs is an outdoor mecca with national parks surrounding the city.
- Albuquerque, NM – Residents enjoy fine dining, shopping, great night-life scene, and stunning mountain ranges.
- Dahlgren, VA – Dahlgren is a quiet town just outside of Fredericksburg, VA, and is a great place to raise a family.
- Washington D.C. – The nation's capital houses the Agency's headquarters of MDA. D.C. offers historical parks and landmarks, fine dining, shopping, and great entertainment.
